Election/Restrictions

Applicant's election of the invention of Group 1 and the species of Figure 14, including claims 1-31, 44 and 47-50 in the reply filed on November 15, 2006 is acknowledged. Because applicant did not distinctly and specifically point out the supposed errors in the restriction requirement, the election has been treated as an election without traverse (MPEP § 818.03(a)).

It is noted that applicant's have canceled all other previously pending claims not drawn to the elected invention/species.

Specification

The disclosure is objected to because of the following informalities: the Related Applications section should be updated to provide the most current status (e.g. US Patent Number or "abandoned") for each of the related applications.

Appropriate correction is required.

Double Patenting

The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. A nonstatutory obviousness-type double patenting rejection is appropriate where the conflicting claims are not identical, but at least one examined application claim is not patentably distinct from the reference claim(s) because the examined application claim is either anticipated by, or would have been obvious over, the reference claim(s). See, e.g., In re Berg, 140 F.3d 1428, 46 USPQ2d 1226 (Fed. Cir. 1998); In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) or 1.321(d) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent either is shown to be commonly owned with this application, or claims an invention made as a result of activities undertaken within the scope of a joint research agreement.

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

Claims 1-31, 44 and 47-50 are rejected on the ground of nonstatutory obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims 14-18 and 25-28 of U.S. Patent No. 7,008,421. Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because the claims recite only minor, obvious differences in the steps used to create a plane of coagulated tissue with irregularly spaced electrodes.

Claims 1-31, 44 and 47-50 are provisionally rejected on the ground of nonstatutory obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims 36-59 of copending Application No. 11/335,295. Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because the claims recite only minor, obvious differences in the steps used to create a plane of coagulated tissue with irregularly spaced electrodes.

This is a provisional obviousness-type double patenting rejection because the conflicting claims have not in fact been patented.

Claims 1-31, 44 and 47-50 are provisionally rejected on the ground of nonstatutory obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims 1-32 of copending Application No. 11/256,500. Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because the claims recite only minor, obvious differences in the steps used to create a plane of coagulated tissue with irregularly spaced electrodes.

This is a provisional obviousness-type double patenting rejection because the conflicting claims have not in fact been patented.

Conclusion

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. Morris et al (2002/0120260) remains the closest prior art, but fails to disclose the differing spacing and/or needle diameters as set forth in the instant application claims. Similarly, the other prior art needle electrode devices specifically teach a uniform placement of electrodes for treating tissue areas.
